Purpose-designed facilities

Catering is usually full board, including wine with the evening meal. B&B only or half-board can also be arranged. Meals are served 'family-style' with buffet lunches, and special diets can be accommodated with advance notice. Day rates are available for non-resident business groups

The conference rooms have numerous power points and can be set up to your requirements, with workshop or lecture room style layouts of chairs and tables.

There is disabled access to all main areas (including the pool) and a specially adapted bedroom.

The English-speaking owners live on site in separate accommodation.

Ideal for all types of courses

Les Hallais is a perfect locale for courses, enabling participants to bring their families or partners, who will find plenty to do in the area, with many attractions from Mount St Michel to the Loire Valley chateaux or the La Flèche zoo within an easy day trip.

Bring a group of 12 or more for 5 nights, and get the sixth night free in 2007!

Beautiful rural location

Les Hallais is located in southern Mayenne in the Pays de la Loire region, just to the south of Normandy.
